CIVIL OR CONJUGAL CONDITION OF THE PEOPLE.

NOTE.—Throughout these returns, it has been deemed advisable to assume that those persons whose condition was not specified on the schedules were unmarried. The householders or parties filling the forms have, particularly in the case of young men and young women, evidently considered it only necessary to make entries opposite the names of those who were married—supposing, probably, that their relation to the head of the family was sufficient evidence of their condition.

TABLE I.—Showing the Number UNMARRIED, MARRIED, and WIDOWED, of each Sex, in each COUNTY and PASTORAL DISTRICT, of all Ages, and of the Age of 20 Years and upwards (exclusive of Migratory Population, Chinese Encampments, and roving Aborigines).

NOTE.—There is reason to believe that several of those persons of advanced age who appear on the returns as unmarried, are really widowers. Some instances were noticed on the Schedules of "Unmarried" being entered opposite the names of very old men residing with their children and grand-children. The Collectors, probably, being informed that they had not wives, carelessly entered them as unmarried.
